

President's Message

By Faye Kunz

35 Years in the Making

On May 25, 1983, fifty very creative individuals got together and decided to create a Guild—a group of people who would get together to create beautiful quilts and help out the Quad Cities communities at the same time. On July 7, 1983, the Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild was officially organized in the state of Iowa.

While the Guild has evolved since its formation, with new ways to make quilts, more machine quilters now than hand quilters and opportunities to connect via the internet, many things also remain the same. Guild members continue to enjoy camaraderie at Get Away, Davenport Sit n Sew, Block to Raffle, Charity, Doll Quilts and of course meetings!

Thanks to our founding members for creating such a wonderful outlet for our creativity, meeting friends, and sharing with those in our community!

May Program

Elise Dee Bereru, a retired lawyer who claims to have more fabric than any one woman has business owning, will present a timely program about “Copyright for Quilters.” Be sure to attend so that you can learn how copyright law applies to quilters and when credit must be given to designers if quilt designs are altered.

A $5.00 fee will be charged to non-members for this presentation.

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the evening meeting.

April Winner: Jan Ehrlich

In anticipation of Farm, Fiber, Fun, the May Doohickey is the book Color by Design by Ann Johnston, Paints, Soda Ash, and sponges.

Quilt Show Publicity NEEDS YOU! The 2018 Great River Quilt Show will be here before you know it. The Publicity Team (Dorine Donaubauer and Diana Alm) ask that you help promote the show by telling your family, friends, neighbors, club and church members, and Facebook friends about it. Information will appear in the newsletter, at meetings, the website, and on the MVQGuild Facebook Page. Please share! Social media works because people share the things they like with their friends, and we'd like for you to help us promote the show in this way.

The September quilt show is a major fund-raiser for the guild. The money raised by the show allows the Guild to bring in top speakers from all over the country. The show also provides funding for batting, some fabric for our charity and doll quilts, and other expenses.

This year we will not be advertising in the newspapers because a survey taken in 2016 showed that this was not the way most of our attendees had heard about the show. The best advertising was word-of-mouth, yard signs and bookmarks. Please help us get the word out!

Words That Move You Challenge

The Fiber Arts Group has extended a challenge to anyone who would like to participate. Linda Klyman has extended the challenge Words That Move You. This can be a quote, saying, song, phrase, or just one word that moves you. Interpret them into a fiber creation such as a wall hanging. We are hoping to have a nice group of this challenge to hang in the Quilt Show.

Quilts of Valor

Well, The May event is near! We have 89 vets invited. At this time I do not have the total that will be coming, that changes daily. In advance to all who will help with this event: THANK YOU. I cannot do this without all of you. A huge thank you to Clayton Peterson and Denny Zahrt for being the EMCEE's. Thank you to all who have signed up for cookies and to all who will help that day. I currently have all but the last 11 quilts here. Those are close to being done though!

Some have asked about the cost of things so here's a brief list:

- The award CERTIFICATE is .32
- The thank you to the vet is .71
- The thank you to our sponsors .50
- The invitation for the event is approximately 1.25 every time we mail one.
- (so if we have to send a duplicate, it costs 1.25 again) In other words, surprises never work they usually cost us.
- The QOV label is .40
- Don't forget the 10+ yards of fabric per quilt.
- The batting per quilt is 8.50
- We budget for 200 quilts per year so the figures are huge. So that's why we fund raise!
- A huge thank you to those who support us:

Donations in 2017:

- American Legion of Henry County
- Modern Woodmen
- Prairie Queen Quilt Club
- Iowa Scottish Rite Masonic Foundation
- Kewanee Womens Club
- John Deere Dollars for Doers

Again to all the individuals who give so generously. PHEW!
So keep up the good work! I appreciate all of you and all that you do. So this is why we do what we do:

To Terry and all involved in QOV,

Thank you so much for the quilt given to me by your organization.

I am humbled and gratified that you selected me to receive this beautiful quilt.

I will cherish the quilt and use it to keep warm and remember my service experiences.

DOLL QUILTS

Hope we are done with the snow, but please keep the doll quilts coming. And come and raid the stash if you need a special fabric or batting. Third Tuesday, 9-2.

See schedule for place:

May and July, Butterworth Ed Center

Skip June and Sept (quilt show)

August, October, November, Deere Wiman Carriage House.

Always need sorters, cutters, sewers, ironing lovers, and new ideas. I bring the chocolate.

On the months we are off, please take the kits we have to finish by December. We never know the count needed until September. Size, c. 24", with or without batting but some sort of filler gives it some body. Go easy on the quilting so they don't get too stiff.

Questions, ideas, call me.. Margaret Paulos

Quilt Auction

Now is the time to consider a donation of one or more items to the "Small Quilt and Related Items" Committee for our September Quilt Show. Proceeds from our 2018 auction will go to Winnie's Place (sheltering abused women and their children on both sides of the river), Quilts of Valor and our own "Quillows" Committee.

Donations of quality items for our two scheduled auctions can be turned in to Nancy Jacobsen or Lynn Figg at monthly meetings or call to arrange a pick up. A wide variety of items is always appreciated. Purses, tote bags, wall hangings, items with a useful purpose around the house (table runners, Christmas Tree Skirts, baskets, etc.), and larger quilts are always welcome. A quilt kit that you purchased and are never going to assemble could also make a great donation.

If you have any questions about the Small Quilt Auction, please see or call Nancy Jacobsen or Lynn Figg.

BLOCK TO RAFFLE

The next block is All A Buzz by LJ Simon. Kits that include the grass and the bees will be available at the April meeting. Each kit will have enough to make two blocks. They will sell for $1.00.

This museum houses the largest collection of quilts in the world. Their collection dates from the early 1700's to the present and represents 50 countries. The highlight of our trip will be a behind the scenes tour and an opportunity to see how they store, take care of, and handle these quilts and answer questions.

Our trip includes stops at at least 3 quilt shops, a catered lunch at the IQSCM, luxury motor coach transportation to and from Davenport, and two nights at a hotel in Omaha including breakfast.

Cost is $185; a deposit of $100 holds your spot.

Come join the fun, conversation, shopping, and quilt education.

Susie Goodley and Kathee Secor

Are you thinking about making a pledge to Birdies for Charity but not sure which charity to choose? Quad-Cities Quilts of Valor has registered to participate in the 2018 Birdies for Charity pledge campaign. We invite you to join us in making a pledge of support. When you donate, 100% of your gift goes directly to Quilts of Valor and John Deere will donate an additional 5-10% of our total pledge amount, making your gift go even further. Quilts of Valor representatives will be at the May meetings to pass out pledge forms. You may either return them to the address on the pledge form or return them that day and a Quilts of Valor volunteer will return them for you. By participating in this program, you will not only support the efforts of our group, but will also have the chance to win a 2-year lease on a 2018 Lexus NX vehicle. If you have any questions regarding this program, please call Laurie Doyle at 309-787-2098.

We have 20 plus classes offered. You can play even if there is a class going on. The barn is big and you will not bother the classes if you are doing something else. We have made one change from a free will donation for the teacher to suggested at least $10 donation above any supply kits provided. You can find the schedule and supply list on the mvqg.org website under the blog and Fiber Arts.

The Presidents Quilt

Questions call Diana Engelbrecht
563/370-4239

To honor Faye Kunz for all the work she has done while being our president for 2 years (in September) I am requesting each member to make a quilt block. She has requested a signature block. The blocks will be due at the June meeting. I will put the blocks together, have it quilted and bind it.

The directions for the block are as follows:

- 1) Cut the background cream/ivory square 4 ½ inches.
- 2) Cut the 2 corner squares 3 ½ inches in your choice of fabric from your stash. The fabric should represent who you are. No holiday fabric please (example Easter eggs, pumpkins, scardy cats, Christmas trees).
- 3) Mark a line through the middle of the corner squares diagonally from one corner to the other.
- 4) Line up on corner square in the corner of the background and sew along your marked line.
- 5) Press the triangle back. Please DO NOT trim.

Repeat 4 & 5 in the opposite corner.

Sign your block. We will have pens at the check-in desk at the guild meetings that you can use to sign if you don't have one. It is helpful to press a piece of freezer paper on back to stabilize it while you are signing

Quilt Show news:

Are you doing spring cleaning in your sewing room? Please consider donating your items to second hand treasures for the Quilt Show. Just bring your items and leave them inside the front door at our meetings. We will be collecting these items through the August meeting. I'm sorry we won't be accepting any magazines that are more than twenty years old. Also the raffle basket committee would like donations of baskets.

We are trying something different this year with the show pins. We decided to purchase pins and charms. You will be able to purchase them at the May meeting for $5.00 each.

Are you interested in helping to define and document the rules for our future quilt shows? Please consider volunteering on the adhoc committee. We would like to have six or seven members do further research. This decision will have to be made by the November meeting so it can be announced before the 2020 show. Please let me know if you would like to be a part of this committee as soon as possible. My email is ourhut12412@msn.com or my cell phone is 563-349-1853.

We are planning a Christmas tree loaded with ornaments for our 2018 Quilt Show. These ornaments will be for sale with proceeds going to the Guild. Please make a fiber ornament for this tree! Donations can be given to Dawn Thompson or Margaret Paulos.

Quilt Show Chairperson
