President's Message

By Faye Kunz

In the interest of space, I am foregoing the President's message this month. Just an urgent plea — To myself and to everyone like me! Stop procrastinating and get those projects done! It's almost time to register for the quilt show!!!

Program Notes:

Monday, June 4 from 9 to 3 – Class: Triangle Boot Camp ($35 for members)

Stephanie will teach participants how to make several kinds of triangles during the Triangle Boot Camp. This course introduces beginning quilters to techniques for successfully piecing several types of triangles and solidifies techniques for quilters with more experience.

The work completed in this class can be used as the basis for a quilt using Stephanie's pattern called "Raspberry Sherbet" or adapted to a variety of projects such as a table topper or a pillow. Locate the downloadable pattern, which includes fabric requirements for several sizes at: http://shop.quiltaddictsanonymous.com/wp-content/uploads/woocomerce_uploads/2016/06/Raspberry-Sherbet.pdf

Class will be held at the Davenport Masonic Center - 511 Veterans Memorial Parkway in Davenport. Lunch will be available on site for $5. To register, contact Karla Miley

June Program

Shhhh --- The program involves a secret reveal for the MVQG -- Stephanie Soebbing, owner of Quilt Addicts Anonymous, will present a trunk show of quilts she designed for her first book, Simple Quilts for the Modern Home, which will be published later this year. Also there's still room in "Triangle Boot Camp," a class Stephanie will be teaching on Monday, June 4th from 9 to 3. Contact Karla Miley to register.

A $5.00 fee will be charged to non-members for this presentation.

If you'd like to join us for dinner between meetings, we plan to meet at the Olive Garden in Moline at about 4 o'clock.

Doohickey Drawing

An Americanism dating from 1910-1915, a doohickey is a gadget; a dingus; a thingumabob; a nifty quilting tool that a quilter may want, has never heard of, or is too expensive to purchase.

Each month a new Doohickey is offered to our membership. It may be a new "cool" tool or it may be something tried and true; expensive or not so much. Tickets are $1.00 and monthly prizes are determined by the number of tickets sold the previous month. The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the evening meeting.

The May Doohickey was won by Diana Engelbrecht.

The June Doohickey is an A3 Lightpad with clips and a carrying case. Perfect for working on art quilts and applique!

Quilt Show Publicity NEEDS YOU! The 2018 Great River Quilt Show will be here before you know it. The Publicity Team (Dorine Donaubauer and Diana Alm) ask that you help promote the show by telling your family, friends, neighbors, club and church members, and Facebook friends about it. Information will appear in the newsletter, at meetings, the website, and on the MVQGuild Facebook Page. Please share! Social media works because people share the things they like with their friends, and we'd like for you to help us promote the show in this way.

The September quilt show is a major fund-raiser for the guild. The money raised by the show allows the Guild to bring in top speakers from all over the country. The show also provides funding for batting, some fabric for our charity and doll quilts, and other expenses.

Things to Do Before the Quilt Show

1. Start/continue bringing items to Guild meeting for Second Hand Treasures.
2. Finish your quilt entries including putting a sleeve on it. If your quilt is more than 90 inches long, put your sleeve on 90" from the bottom. There are instructions in the newsletter.
3. Measure your quilt before sending it to the quilter because you will need the size for your entry registration.
4. Think about making a pinwheel Christmas ornament to donate for our Christmas tree at the show. The directions are on Pinterest under "Pinwheel Christmas Ornament". If you need help with this call Dawn Thompson 563-349-1853.
5. Please consider donating a new item to the raffle baskets or maybe your sit and sew group would like to donate a basket. Think of something fun—it doesn't even have to be quilting related. If you have any questions give Vicki Morrow a call 309-788-0373. She would also like donations of baskets.
6. Continue selling raffle tickets and if you need more contact Bev Hoy at 563-391-8685 or Sandy Bender at 309-781-8525.
7. Think about having a quilt appraised during the show. Scheduling for this will begin at the August Guild meeting with Sandie Cockerill.
8. Continue to drop off book marks at quilt shops, libraries, or restaurants that you frequent. Our goal this year is to have 2000 guests at our quilt show.
9. Quilt entry/registration will begin after our July meeting and close on Saturday August 11th at midnight. Paper entries will also be available at Guild meetings.
10. Consider signing up to volunteer for the show. Sign up for this will begin soon. There will be lots of opportunities whether you need a sit down job or something else.

Quilt Registration Cathy Bennett/Suzi Dale

Registration begins at the July Guild Meeting. If you need help with online registration, we will have laptops available at the meeting. Paper entry forms will also be available for those who can't or don't wish to enter online. The database which gathers all the entry information when you register online produces a spreadsheet that we will use to sort and extract whatever reports are needed. To facilitate the correct sorting of this information, there are some formatting issues you will need to keep in mind:

Telephone Numbers: Please use this format: (563) 123-4567 when entering online

Quilt dimensions are always in inches so there's no need to put a " mark after the number. And, please, whole numbers only—round off.

On submitting an online registry, you'll get an email acknowledging your entry. KEEP THIS EMAIL. This email is the only way you'll be able to make any corrections to your entry.

The absolute, drop-dead, no-exceptions deadline for registry is midnight on August 11.

We will continue to refine and communicate more information on registering online via the Newsletter or other social media. Paper entry forms can be given to Cathy Bennett or Suzi Dale (their addresses are in the directory). Questions about online entry can be addressed to them; questions about categories should be addressed to Carol Brooks or Faye Kunz.

Quilts of Valor

So proud of all that you do, I am writing this before the ceremony, I am assuming that the event went off with little issues.

I will have totals next month for you.

First of all to all our vets and service men and women, thank you and welcome home.

Thank you To all the quilters who made all the quilts.

Thank you To all of you who helped that day in any way.

Thank you for the cookie makers, you made our day a little sweeter.

A few stats for you:

We hit our 10,000th volunteer hour this month.

We will give our 1,000th quilt during the November award ceremony.

How can I not be grateful? These notes confirm why we do what we do. When I get overwhelmed, it seems like God gives me a God-wink and I receive notes like this:

Dear Ms. Austin, When Marian called me about Quilts of Valor and that I had been selected to receive one, I was surprised.

When she delivered my quilt, I was amazed. I will always cherish it and its meaning and display it for all to see.

I don't consider myself to be a hero. My government asked me to do a job and I did it to the best of my ability.

But isn't it great to live in a community where unknown volunteers willingly use their hands and hearts to honor veterans for their service accomplishments.

God bless each and every one of you.

Most gratefully, Gordon F. WWII Pilot

DOLL QUILTS

NO MEETING IN JUNE

See schedule for place:

May and July, Butterworth Ed Center

Skip June and Sept (quilt show)

August, October, November, Deere Wiman Carriage House.

Always need sorters, cutters, sewers, ironing lovers, and new ideas. I bring the chocolate.

On the months we are off, please take the kits we have to finish by December. We never know the count needed until September. Size, c. 24", with or without batting but some sort of filler gives it some body. Go easy on the quilting so they don't get too stiff.

Words That Move You Challenge

The Fiber Arts Group has extended a challenge to anyone who would like to participate. Linda Klyman has extended the challenge Words That Move You. This can be a quote, saying, song, phrase, or just one word that moves you. Interpret them into a fiber creation such as a wall hanging. We are hoping to have a nice group of this challenge to hang in the Quilt Show.

Quilt Auction

Now is the time to consider a donation of one or more items to the "Small Quilt and Related Items" Committee for our September Quilt Show. Proceeds from our 2018 auction will go to Winnie's Place (sheltering abused women and their children on both sides of the river), Quilts of Valor and our own "Quillows" Committee.

Donations of quality items for our two scheduled auctions can be turned in to Nancy Jacobsen or Lynn Figg at monthly meetings or call to arrange a pick up. A wide variety of items is always appreciated. Purses, tote bags, wall hangings, items with a useful purpose around the house (table runners, Christmas Tree Skirts, baskets, etc.), and larger quilts are always welcome. A quilt kit that you purchased and are never going to assemble could also make a great donation.

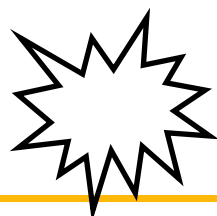

If you have any questions about the Small Quilt Auction, please see or call Nancy Jacobsen or Lynn Figg.

TRAVEL COMMITTEE

The time is here to finalize our plans for the upcoming bus trip to the International Quilt Study Center and Museum in Lincoln, Nebraska. If you made a deposit of $100, the remaining balance of $85 is due at the June meeting. At this writing, we still have room for a few more people. So, if you have a quilting friend who might like to go, they are welcome even if they are not a guild member.

We have a wonderful 3-day trip planned that includes the museum, lodging, transportation, catered lunch, and shopping!! Lots of shopping!! For a fun time with like-minded people, please make your reservation at the June meeting if you haven't already done so. Hope to see you on the bus!!!

The Presidents Quilt

Questions call Diana Engelbrecht
563/370-4239

To honor Faye Kunz for all the work she has done while being our president for 2 years (in September) I am requesting each member to make a quilt block. She has requested a signature block. The blocks will be due at the June meeting. I will put the blocks together, have it quilted and bind it.

The directions for the block are as follows:

- 1) Cut the background cream/ivory square 4 1/2 inches.
- 2) Cut the 2 corner squares 3 1/2 inches in your choice of fabric from your stash. The fabric should represent who you are. No holiday fabric please (example Easter eggs, pumpkins, scardy cats, Christmas trees).
- 3) Mark a line through the middle of the corner squares diagonally from one corner to the other.
- 4) Line up on corner square in the corner of the background and sew along your marked line.
- 5) Press the triangle back. Please DO NOT trim.

Repeat 4 & 5 in the opposite corner.

Sign your block. We will have pens at the check-in desk at the guild meetings that you can use to sign if you don't have one. It is helpful to press a piece of freezer paper on back to stabilize it while you are signing

PROGRAM NOTES, CONTINUED: July: Guild members will be entertained by a musical program presented by the 4Cs - Colleen Curry and Chris Clark at our annual Summer Pot-Luck. Bring a dish of your choice to share – luncheon items to the afternoon pot-luck or appetizers and desserts to the evening meeting.

August: An award-winning beading expert, Lisa Binkley, will be our featured guest. She will present trunk shows at our Guild meetings on August 7th and classes - Beginning Bead Embroidery on August 8th (Class fee: $35, Kit fee: $25) and Bead Embroidery: Beyond the Basics (Class fee: $35, Kit fee: $30) on August 9th. Sign-up Sheets are now be available. Classes will be held at the Davenport Masonic Center - 511 Veterans Memorial Parkway in Davenport. Lunch will be available on site for $5
